

Improve Your Internet Experience

Developing Safe Routines for Today's Internet

This three-part informational series explores useful techniques to make your internet experiences more secure. Learn to recognize common pitfalls and find durable solutions that can help protect you from internet security breaches.

Profiles, Programs & Passwords

Can you tell if your internet profile is secure? Learn some best practices for creating secure internet profiles. Obtain strategies you can use across all programs, from e-mail accounts to social media and more.

Monday, December 17
2-3 pm

Capitol Branch
3969 N. 74th St.

Thursday, December 20
2-3 pm

Atkinson Branch
1960 W. Atkinson Ave.

Website Safeguards

Good profile building is an important step in internet safety. However, there are external factors that can make the internet risky, including scam websites, spam e-mails and malware. Avoiding these hazards requires you to be alert. Learn tools and behaviors that will protect you when browsing.

Tuesday, December 18
10-11 am

Martin Luther King Branch
310 W. Locust St.

Friday, December 21
10-11 am

East Branch
2320 N. Cramer St.

E-Commerce

Online shopping is convenient and has expanded in many ways from groceries to games. There are also many secure payment methods that can be used to purchase goods online. Learn to recognize what makes a website safe for purchasing and what kind of websites to avoid.

Wednesday, December 19
2-3 pm

Mill Road Branch
6431 N. 76th St.

Saturday, December 22
10-11 am

Central Library
814 W. Wisconsin Ave.