

Accessing an Online Newspaper

Many newspapers from around the world now offer users access to news online. The following exercise provides instruction on accessing the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel's web site.

1. From a MPL computer, click Programs from the Start menu.
 - A submenu will appear.
2. Click Internet Explorer.
 - The MPL web site home page [<http://www.mpl.org>] loads in the Internet Explorer browser
3. On the address toolbar, click in the box that displays the current web address (it will turn a blue-purple color).
4. Type www.jsonline.com (the address for the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel web site).
5. Press the Enter key (located on your keyboard).
 - The Milwaukee Journal Sentinel web site loads.
 - A list of links appears on the left-hand side of the page with the various sections of the newspaper.
6. Click on links that interest you (Note: Click the BACK button to return to previous pages).

Web Address

The screenshot shows the JSOnline.com website in Internet Explorer. The browser window title is "JSOnline.com, Web site of the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel - Milwaukee Public Library". The address bar shows "http://www.jsonline.com/". The website features a navigation bar with links for Jobs, Cars, Homes, Rentals, Shopping, and a search bar. The main content area includes a "NEWS WATCH" section with headlines like "UPDATE: Tornado on ground nearly 11 miles" and "UPDATE: Flood warning for Ozaukee County". Below this is a "TOP STORIES" section with a headline "N.H. plays differing roles for Dems, GOP". The right sidebar contains "HAPPENING NOW, HA" with links for Weather Forecasts, Weather Closings, and Traffic Travel Times. The left sidebar lists "CLASSIFIEDS" and "NEWS" categories.
