

FRIENDS of the MILWAUKEE
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Advocates for Libraries, Literacy, and Life-Long Learning

For immediate release

CONTACT: Meg Diaz
(414) 286-8703

Savings on Holiday and Children's Books at Winter Library Sale

Milwaukee, Wis. – November 6, 2009 – A sale featuring new and used holiday and children's books will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, November 21 at the Central branch of the Milwaukee Public Library, 814 W. Wisconsin Avenue.

"We've got plenty of bargains on new and nearly new books," says Lois Blinkhorn, president of the Friends of the Milwaukee Public Library. "The used book sale is a great way to get a jump on holiday shopping."

Book topics include many religious and secular holiday stories. In addition, hundreds of children's hardcover and paperback books are available for purchase.

The book sale also offers patrons a chance to visit the Milwaukee Public Library's used bookstore. A wide variety of inexpensive books of all kinds are available for purchase by the public at this Central Library location throughout the year.

The Friends group is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization formed in 1995 by combining two volunteer groups, the Literary Society and the Bookfellows. Funds raised through the book store, book sales, and other events support the Milwaukee Public Library.

For more information, please call (414) 286-8703, log onto www.mpl.org or e-mail your message to friends@mpl.org.

###