

Martin Luther King Jr. Day

Virtual Celebration 2022 - Monday, January 17, 1 pm CST

“What Is Your Life’s Blueprint?”

Honor Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s legacy by fighting against injustice through learning, reading, and connecting. Your voice and actions matter.

More details can be found on the library’s website at mpl.org/MLKDay

Join the Virtual Program LIVE!

Exciting Musical and Dance Performances by Ko-Thi Dance Company and The Village Drum Company.

Memories of Personal Experiences with Dr. King shared by panel members from the Milwaukee community hosted by Clayborn Benson of the Wisconsin Black Historical Society.

A Milwaukee Black Entrepreneurs Panel Discussion hosted by Ayrton Bryan of MKE Black on the challenges of starting and operating a small business in Milwaukee. Featuring D’Aruan Brown • Crumbles Confectionary, Danaz Bailey • FineVines4U, Joanna Brooks • Embody Yoga, and Jacquelyn Tucker • Emmanuel’s Mix.

Updates on the New MLK Branch beginning construction in early 2022.

Follow the program LIVE on facebook.com/MilwaukeePublicLibrary and youtube.com/MilwaukeePublicLibraryHome

Collaborative City Art Project

Learn about the Collaborative City Art Project and how you can have a chance to win a LEGO City Series set!

Alpha Phi Alpha Trivia Contest

Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity brothers will pose a variety of trivia questions throughout the program. Test your knowledge!

Resources for All Ages

Venture through a list of Milwaukee Public Library resources about Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the Civil Rights Movement, as well as the ongoing struggle against racism, discrimination, and voter suppression.

