

Virtual Martin Luther King Jr. Day 2021

“Injustice Anywhere is a Threat to Justice Everywhere”

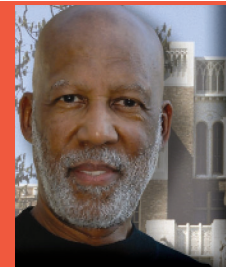

Honor Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s legacy by fighting against injustice through learning, reading, and connecting. Your voice and actions matter.

More details can be found on the library’s website at mpl.org/MLKDay

Dr. King’s Legacy and Our Future

Engage in a conversation about the past, present and future of the Civil Rights Movement in America. Guest speakers include Daphne Barbee-Wooten, a civil rights attorney in Honolulu and daughter of civil rights leader Lloyd Barbee, and educator Terrence Roberts, one of the Little Rock Nine. Moderated by Michelle London of Spectrum News.

Monday, January 18, 2-3 p.m.

#MLKMPL2021 Challenge

Let’s go viral! Share a video or image of art inspired by the MLK quote: “Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.” There are various forms of art from which to choose:

- Post a poem
- Sing a song
- Perform a monologue
- Act out a scene
- Create an original dance
- Film a time lapse video of a painting or drawing
- Share an original photo
- Perform an original spoken word piece

Include #MLKMPL2021 on your video or image on your preferred social media account. Challenge your friends and family to do the same.

Be a part of our #MLKMPL2021 Video on Martin Luther King Day!

Share your image or video with us so we can add it to our video. Go to mpl.org/MLKDay to learn more details. Submissions are due by Monday, January 11. View the #MLKMPL2021 Challenge video on King Day, Monday, January 18 at 1 p.m. on our YouTube channel and Facebook Live.
